

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

United States of America

v.

Criminal No. 10-cr-056-01-SM

Leif Anderson

O R D E R

On December 21, 2011, defendant appeared for a preliminary hearing/probable cause hearing under Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.1 on three alleged violations of conditions of supervision, as charged in the government's petition dated December 20, 2011 (doc. no. 32). Defendant is on release from his conviction in 2010 for Failing to Register as a Sex Offender, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2250(a).

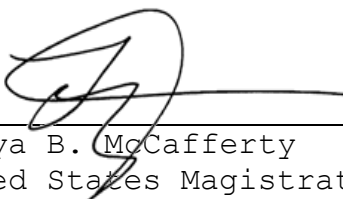

At the close of the hearing, defendant stipulated to probable cause on the violations. I therefore find probable cause that defendant has violated the conditions as charged in the petition.

Defendant sought release under Rule 32.1(a)(6). The government sought detention. Under Rule 32.1(a)(6), defendant bears the burden of establishing by clear and convincing evidence that he will not flee and that he poses no danger to any other person or to the community. The court issued its ruling orally from the bench. The court incorporates its oral ruling herein, and for the reasons stated on the record, finds that defendant did not meet his burden to show by clear and convincing evidence that he will not flee and that his release, even on strict conditions, would pose no danger to any other person or the community. Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the defendant be detained pending a final revocation hearing.

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

SO ORDERED.
